GOV. EASLEY APPOINTS SMITH TO N.C. CEMETERY COMMISSION

RALEIGH – Gov. Mike Easley has appointed Dwaine Smith of Siler City to the N.C. Cemetery Commission.

Smith is founder and president of Heritage Family Services Inc. He is a member of the Country Music Association and was nominated by American Country Radio as Male Vocalist of the Year in 1991. He is director of music for Mount Vernon United Methodist Church in Siler City. Smith received his bachelor's degree in economics and business management from N.C. State University.

The commission has the power and duty to adopt rules and regulations such as examining the records of licensees, the investigation of complaints, failure to pay fees, and failure to render required reports and violations subject to the provision in the General Statute. The board has nine members, each serving four-year terms. The governor appoints seven members.
